ST. JOSEPH HAPPENINGS

The Social Concerns Committee is collecting personal hygiene items for guests of Bethesda House in Schenectady this month as these items are not covered by Food Stamps. Pick up a bag from the box in Holy Family Hall, fill it, and return it by September 26. Thank you!

The next order for Hannaford gift cards & reloads is scheduled for Tuesday, Sept. 21. Contact Deb Griffith (518-810-8911) by Monday, Sept. 20 to have your gift card reloaded or to inquire about participating in this ongoing fundraiser for St. Joseph's. Participation makes you eligible for a quarterly $25 Hannaford gift card.

Thank you to everyone who donated to our School Supply Collection. City Mission, SiCM and Scotia Food Pantry are extremely grateful for all the supplies. There is a complete list of what was collected on the bulletin board in Holy Family Hall.

St. Joseph's is once again selling passes for the annual Bosco's "Friends Helping Friends" shopping day, held in-store only on Wednesday, October 20. The $5 shopping pass is available to purchase at the Parish Office as well as before & after mass on Sunday. This pass entitles you to a 25% discount on most items. St. Joseph's receives 100% of the proceeds from the sale of the passes. Questions? Contact Deb Griffith (518-810-8911).

We are still collecting handmade or store bought scarves, mittens, and hats for the homeless. Drop off your donations in the bin in Holy Family Hall. Thank you to all who have donated; the winters can be cold and keeping people warm is important. The Social Concerns Committee

The Social Concerns Committee will be having a "Mission of the Month" throughout next year, highlighting organizations and our plan to aid them. The flyer in today's bulletin gives a brief idea of those collections. It is our hope that this will give everyone a chance to prepare ahead and take advantage of store sales as they appear. We thank you for your generosity.

The SJ September Pastoral Council meeting will be held Tuesday, September 21 at 7 pm in the library of the Parish Center.

*The Sanctuary Candle is lit in remembrance of

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Let the Good News resound

Religion is often reduced to its most visible aspect: Sunday worship. But the church's ministry includes service, evangelization, healing, and teaching. On Catechetical Sunday we celebrate our mutual call to educate and instruct. "Catechize" means to echo or resound. Saint Paul once modeled for the Corinthians this task of "re-sounding" the Good News when he wrote: "I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you." Does your Catholic faith steer you when making decisions and weighing values? Does it bring consolation? Does it challenge you to sacrifice? Echo these riches to those you love.

MEMORIAL OF ANDREW KIM TAE-GÖN, PRIEST, AND PAUL CHÖNG HA-SANG, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

Sound the depths of your faith

This year marks the 200th anniversary of the birth of Andrew Kim Tae-gön, the first native-born Korean priest and patron saint of Korea. He was one of an estimated 10,000 who were martyred for their Christian faith in Korea in the 19th century. The theme of the bicentenary celebration is "Are you Catholic?" because Andrew's "yes" to that question during interrogation cost him his life. The bishop of the Korean city of Daejeon said the theme "calls us to reflect seriously on our identity and our consistency as Catholics." Take this opportunity to consider what your Catholic identity means to you.

FEAST OF MATTHEW, APOSTLE, EVANGELIST

Let peace begin with me

The United Nations designates today as the International Day of Peace. It's also the feast of Saint Matthew—the evangelist whose list of Beatitudes includes the words "blessed are the peacemakers." According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, the "are at the heart of Jesus' preaching." They "shed light on the actions and attitudes characteristic of the Christian life" and are the "paradoxical promises that sustain hope in the midst of tribulations." Matthew must have experienced such tribulations when he, as a hated tax collector, joined the other apostles. Be a peacemaker today, especially among people you're nearest to.

READINGS: Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-13; Matthew 9:9-13 (643). "I desire mercy, not sacrifice."

Share the wealth

Power sharing and collaborative ministry are thorny questions within church circles and many faith communities. Jesus can be our model and our guide, in this as in all questions. When he sent the apostles out he did so in pairs and "gave them power and authority." Add it up and it equals shared, collaborative ministry. Those who are sure of their own authority are able to share it freely and without fear. More ministries and leadership positions will open up in the church when those with power learn to trust the faith community the way Jesus did.

MEMORIAL OF PIUS OF PIETRELCINA, PRIEST

Be an everyday mystic

In a secular world that prizes material possessions, the mystical aspect of the church can captivate. Saint Padre Pio (1887-1968) certainly drew attention for his mystical attributes. A relatively obscure Italian Capuchin priest, he gained fame for reportedly displaying the wounds of Christ, called stigmata, and for his insightful (some called it psychic) abilities as a confessor. He spent up to 10 hours a day with people who sought guidance and forgiveness in Confession. Only a few of us become mystics, but all can seek holiness and insight. Today meditate and act on the path to holiness that God has placed before you.

READINGS: Haggai 1:1-8; Luke 9:7-9 (452). "Herod said, 'John I beheaded. Who then is this about whom I hear such things?'"

Grounded in a sense of belonging

In our Western mindset, we often think of land as "property," owned and available for human use. But if we hope to stem climate change, we need to realize it's really the other way around. The land doesn't belong to us; we belong to the land. Writes Pope Francis in his encyclical on caring for creation, Laudato Si': "Many things have to change course, but it is we human beings above all who need to change. We lack an awareness of our common origin, of our mutual belonging, and of a future to be shared with everyone." How will you commit to the care of this land that sustains us in so many ways?

READINGS: Haggai 2:1-9; Luke 9:18-22 (453). "In this place I will give you peace."

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Ripe with possibilities

Jesus was born to Mary "in the fullness of time," as one scripture passage puts it. This rich metaphor of time ripening rings true to human experience. Think of the blessings in your own life, and how they have developed often from small beginnings or mere glimmers of hope: deep and lasting relationships, hard-earned insights, lifelong achievements and legacies. Good things take time, patience, perseverance, courage, and perhaps most of all, trust. Think of Mary's journey of trust in response to God's call, and make it your own. And may the blessings in your own life ripen in the fullness of time!

READINGS: Zechariah 2:5-9, 14-15a; Luke 9:43b-45 (454).

"Sing and rejoice, O daughter Zion! See, I am coming to dwell among you, says the LORD."

From the Pastor:

Today we celebrate Catechetical Sunday. This day gives us an opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Someone (I wish I could remember who) once said, "faith should be caught and not just taught." This witnessing, and "catching" if you will, happens not only in the church, but primarily at home.

As we celebrate Catechetical Sunday, it is important to take a moment to distinguish between catechesis and religious education. Perhaps we can all take a moment to consider this matter. Catechesis is the work of preparing a person for a full and sincere confession of faith in Jesus Christ. Religious education, refers to the more general instruction in our religious tradition and practice. It is the difference between knowing Jesus Christ, and knowing about him. A subtle difference, but an important one.

While religious education is a process most frequently associated with children and youth, catechesis applies to people of all ages, and significantly involves adults and adult discernment. We see this in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). If you or someone you know wants to become Catholic or finish their sacraments, this is the time for interactive inquiry.

The Evangelization and Catechesis team held registration on September 12 and 13. They were happy to greet families old and new as they registered for classes. If you did not get here, simply contact the Evangelization and Catechesis office to get started! Also, as our newly combined Faith Formation and Youth Ministries programs welcome the children and youth from all three parishes to come together to grow in faith and relationship with Jesus, how wonderful it would be for adult volunteers from all three communities to be visibly involved. Today you will see those whose vocation it is to serve as catechist as they are called forth to be commissioned for their ministry during mass today. Please pray for them and consider joining them! We still need of additional catechists.

We had our first week with the new schedule, and there was a noticeable increase attendance at the 5 pm Saturday Vigil mass at Immaculate Conception. Many of those present offered feedback on our new bulletin format, with many nice things said! Thank you all, and a thank you to Kathy Friscic for coordinating with Lisa Hall at St. Joseph's and Donna Mayer at Our Lady of Grace in order to publish our first communal bulletin!

Church vessels, vestments and all things related to liturgy should be of the finest quality because, "The vestments worn by ministers symbolize the ministers' functions and add to the beauty of the rite." (From the US Catholic Bishops document, "Built With Living Stones.") Over the years, when I felt it was necessary to improve liturgical items, such as chalices, vestments, Holy Oil containers, altar linens, and anything associated with the liturgy, I always invited the parishioners who might like to donate a specific item in honor of or in memory of someone. Oftentimes there would be multiple donors for the item or items. I would like to enhance the vestments at St. Joseph's and Our Lady of Grace, at the same time, I do not want to burden the parish finances. If you have questions or are interested in helping to procure any of these items, please contact me. Thank you!

Since last October, our parish Trustees have given so much of their time forming a new model of parish life for our three communities. I extend a great thank you to John Lorenc, Polly Van Nostrand, Tom Neals, Carol Reynolds, Maryann Haskell, and Frank Zilinskis, for their generous gifts of time and talent. I am especially indebted to John Lorenc from OLG as he extended his term in order to offer his knowledge and support of the community. John has offered his resignation as Trustee, effective, the first day of Advent, the Church New Year, on November 28. We will be looking for a new Trustee for OLG. If you would like to suggest a male member of the community, as parish trustees are typically one male and one female, or would be interested in the ministry yourself, please let me know.

Until next week, be well, do good deeds, and say your prayers.

Fr. Jerry

OUR PRAYER: Loving God, be present to us and grant us wisdom, so that we, who may feel anxious about change, might trust in Your love and rest in the Changelessness that is You.

OUR LADY OF GRACE HAPPENINGS

Contact Joyce Martucci at 518-312-2291 for inquiries.
